SYPNOSIS

The "Transformational Leadership towards Malaysia Madani" Seminar is jointly organised by the Institute of Islamic Understanding Malaysia (IKIM) and the Kulliyah of Islamic Revealed Knowledge and Human Sciences, International Islamic University Malaysia (UIAM) in memory of the late Emeritus Professor Tan Sri Dr. Mohd. Kamal bin Hassan. He had made a great impact and contribution to the world of academia, research, Islamic education, and human capital development.

As a former Chairman of the Institute of Islamic Understanding Malaysia (IKIM), the late Emeritus Professor Tan Sri Dr. Mohd. Kamal was very committed to bringing the vision and mission of Islam to the global level. Apart from being a Rector of the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), he had also served as the Chairman of the Islamic Religious Education and Education Coordinating Advisory Board (LEPAI), a board established with the approval of the Council of Rulers.

How can the current generation continue the legacy of the late Distinguished Professor Tan Sri Dr. Mohd. Kamal bin Hassan in building an Islamic civilisation in line with the spirit of Malaysia Madani? This Seminar will explore and reveal the works, writings, and thoughts of the late Tan Sri Dr. Mohd. Kamal bin Hassan in order to understand and appreciate his thoughts and works as a prominent Muslim scholar and thinker.

OBJECTIVES

- i. To understand the philosophy and framework of the late Distinguished Professor Tan Sri Dr. Mohd. Kamal bin Hassan that aligns with the policy of Malaysia Madani;
- ii. To appreciate the leadership of the late Professor Tan Sri Dr. Mohd Kamal in reforming Islamic education and intellectualism locally and globally; and,
- iii. To illuminate the leadership transformation mandate so as to build the Malay and Islamic civilisation through the works of the late Professor Tan Sri Dr. Mohd Kamal.
